

Chapter 1. Useful crops.

Q.1 Name them.

1. It is mainly grown in those areas where the average annual rainfall is less than 100 cm. Maize
2. It is used in clayey soil and is used for bread making. Wheat
3. It is a common food crop in northern and western India. It is mainly grown as Kharif crop in the country. Maize
4. It is considered as the master crop in the coastal regions of India. Rice
5. It is usually grown in north and south India. This tall grass is rich in sugar. Sugarcane
6. This strong natural fibre is used to make sacks and coarse cloth. Jute
7. This crop yields oil-rich seeds that are often sprinkled on buns and biscuits. Soyabean
8. The milky substance from this tree has elastic properties and is waterproof. Sesame

NOTE :-

Maintain one Notebook per Subject if possible if you not have separate notebooks, if you don't have then don't go out of the house.

You can do 2 subjects in 1 notebook or 3 subjects in 1 notebook as per the availability of notebooks.

If this is also not possible, then you can do in sheets and later attach them in your notebook.