

Chapter 2. Unique: Plants

Q. I Answer the following questions.

1. Which ornamental flowering plant is also a source of narcotic called opium? Ans. Poppy
2. What is a common Indian gooseberry called? Ans. Amla
3. The leaf of which tree is on the coat of arms and flag of Canada?
Ans. Maple
4. Which fibre plant is also known as china grass? Ans. Ramie
5. The nutritious fruit Avocado, is a native of which country?
Ans. Mexico
6. The common winter crop 'shakarkand' or 'sweet potato' is native to which continent? Ans - South America

Q. II Fill in the blanks:-

1. Deodar is a cedar tree, the name of which in Sanskrit means "wood of the gods".
2. The Great Banyan tree is the biggest and oldest tree in India.
3. Mangrove tree found in Sundarbans with spikes, that grow above the ground, are known as Sundari tree
4. The oldest and biggest teak tree in the world is located in Thailand
5. An alga-fungus living combination is known as Lichen
6. The Anandbodhi tree is the sacred peepal tree located in Sravasti India.

NOTE :-

Maintain one Notebook per Subject if possible if you not have separate notebooks, if you don't have then don't go out of the house.

You can do 2 subjects in 1 notebook or 3 subjects in 1 notebook as per the availability of notebooks.

If this is also not possible, then you can do in sheets and later attach them in your notebook.